A seasoned attorney who focuses on representing creditors in secured transactions, receiverships, bankruptcies, and workout proceedings.

Her client base includes lenders, leasing companies, trade creditors, trustees, and receivers. She is widely recognized for her solution-oriented approach to problem-solving, which has earned her high acclaim in the legal community.

Clients have consistently praised her skills, professionalism, and commitment to service, noting her ability to quickly analyze problems and provide decisive action. She is dedicated to providing exceptional service to her clients and is a trusted advisor for her clients who require sound advice and effective strategies.

Chambers USA singled her out as a standout legal practitioner and recognized her as a top-ranking attorney in Foster Garvey's Creditors' Rights & Bankruptcy practice. Clients have also lauded her skills and approach to client service, with comments such as:

"Deborah is very professional, well reasoned and one of our primary attorneys. She is very strong for her client service and general level of service, commercial awareness and vision and level of sophistication."

"Deborah consistently goes above and beyond to deliver high quality and timely assistance in matters. She is quickly able to turn requests around and is confident in her responses related
