

Duff on Hospitality Law

Online Travel Update: Vacation Edition

By Greg Duff on 7.8.22 | Posted in Online Travel Update

The “vacation edition” of our weekly Online Travel Update is below. Our regular Online Travel Update will be back next week.

News:

Expedia Group and Bilt Rewards Launch Exclusive Travel Portal for Bilt Members to Book Flights, Hotels and Experiences With Points Earned on Rent

June 30, 2022 via Business Wire

Expedia Group, the world’s leading travel technology platform, today announced a collaboration with Bilt Rewards to launch the new Bilt Travel Portal, available exclusively to Bilt Rewards members.

Trip.com Surges on Strong Travel Recovery Led by Staycation Travel and Local Hotel Bookings

June 28, 2022 via Seeking Alpha

Trip.com rallied 16 percent in early premarket trade until noon as the company experienced solid growth of travel demand in the global markets, especially across Europe and the Asia Pacific amid countries easing travel restrictions.

Metaverse Could Become Equaliser for Small, Independent Brands, Says Accenture’s Tansey

June 28, 2022 via WIT

With rising consumer interest in virtual experiences, Accenture highlights opportunities for travel and hospitality ACCENTURE recently released its latest research on the impact of the growing use of immersive technologies such as augmented and virtual reality in the travel and hospitality sector.

Frosch is Thrilled About JPMorgan Chase’s Acquisition of the Agency

June 28, 2022 via Travel Weekly

JPMorgan Chase & Co.’s acquisition of Frosch is a feather in the cap for the entire travel industry, Frosch executives say, as well as an indicator of the strength of the travel agency community specifically. “I think this is incredibly exciting for our industry.