Panel

Gregor Hodgson, Vice President, Parker, Smith & Feek

Gregor Hodgson is an Account Executive and Vice President at Parker, Smith & Feek, Inc., one of the Pacific Northwest's largest, independently owned insurance brokerages. He has been involved in the northwest insurance market for more than 25 years as both an underwriter and broker. At PS&F, Gregor helps many of the Northwest's premiere hotels, resorts, restaurants, and clubs manage their unique risks.

Casey Huckaby, Huckaby Consulting, LLC

Casey Huckaby has nearly 15 years of professional experience in information technology and has worked with Pacific Northwest companies of all sizes, including Fortune 100 organizations. In 2010, he became an information security consultant, focusing on security assessments, IT audit, and disaster recovery and incident response planning. His company, Huckaby Consulting, LLC, specializes in IT governance, risk, and compliance consulting.

Dan McConnell, President and Chief Strategist, DMCPR

During his career, Dan McConnell has counseled CEO's, sports stars, and hundreds of other public-facing officials about effective communications. He has earned an international reputation for his crisis communications work, from Asia and Europe to South Africa and South America, and was awarded the public relations industry's coveted Lifetime Achievement Award. Dan is a senior instructor at the University of Washington and was presented the school's highest teaching honor last year. He now represents a small group of elite companies for their strategic communication needs.

Scott G. Warner, Partner, Garvey Schubert Barer

Specializing in technology, privacy and data security, Scott Warner represents a diverse array of clients ranging from hotels, restaurants and wineries to video game, biotech and software companies. All of Scott's clients share a common goal: they own or use technology and other intellectual property and want to protect and make the most of their investments while minimizing the risks to their businesses. Scott has been recognized by his peers and clients as an AV Peer Review Rated lawyer by Martindale-Hubbell, as a "Super Lawyer" by Washington Law & Politics magazine, and one of "Washington's Most Amazing Lawyers" by Washington CEO Magazine.

Moderator

Julie Eisenhauer, Principal, Clark Nuber

Julie is a principal in the audit and assurance practice at Clark Nuber and leads the firm's hospitality industry niche. She works with her clients to provide high quality financial information to meet the needs of owners, investors, and management and consults with her clients in strengthening their internal controls and operational processes.
