Andrew J. Goodman, of Garvey Schubert Barer in New York, New York, spoke at the 2010 Fall Conference and Induction of Fellows for the Litigation Counsel of America (LCA) on October 28-29 in Naples, Florida.

Mr. Goodman's presentation was made to Fellows of the LCA, a trial lawyer honorary society which represents less than one-half of one percent of American lawyers. Andrew J. Goodman is a Fellow of the LCA.

Fellowship in the Litigation Counsel of America is highly selective and by invitation only. Fellows are carefully selected based upon evaluations of excellence, effectiveness and accomplishment in litigation, and superior ethical reputation. The LCA seeks a high level of diversity in its composition and includes Women's and Diversity Initiatives. Established as a trial and appellate lawyer honorary society reflecting the American bar in the twenty-first century, the LCA represents the best in law among its membership.
