

Hot Topics in Government Subcontracting

Seminar
October 3, 2013 | 8:00 a.m. - 10:00 a.m.
Garvey Schubert Barer

Garvey Schubert Barer presents an informal breakfast seminar on current hot topics in subcontracting in government procurements, with a focus on prime – sub relations.

Recent legal and budgetary developments are changing the landscape for subcontracting in government procurements. Laws and regulations, such as the Small Business Jobs Act of 2010 and corresponding regulations, recent court decisions regarding teaming agreements, and budgetary cutbacks all create opportunities and risks.

Key topics to be addressed:

New requirements resulting from the Small Business Jobs Act of 2010 and corresponding regulations.

Teaming Agreements – recent developments

Bring Your Questions

Panelists:

John Knab, Garvey Schubert Barer, Washington, DC

Benjamin Lambiotte, Garvey Schubert Barer, Washington, DC

Julia Holden-Davis, Garvey Schubert Barer, Anchorage, AK

Registration:

Please confirm your attendance by no later than Tuesday, October 1, 2013.

RSVP to Caroline Fawaz by email cfawaz@gsblaw.com or phone at 202-965-7880.

Contact

John A. Knab

Related Services

Government Contracts