Event Description:

You can't know everything, so what should you know? What are common legal issues that artists face? Join this distinguished panel to gain an overview of important legal topics in business, tax, intellectual property and employment law. You will gain practical advice and insights as the panelists use a hypothetical scenario involving a collaborative performance by writers, artists, performers and musicians to illustrate their presentations. After the panel, relax with a glass of wine and light hors d'oeuvres while conversing with fellow workshop participants.
