About The Heckerling Institute on Estate Planning Conference

The Heckerling Institute on Estate Planning is the leading educational conference for all members of the estate planning team, including attorneys, trust officers, accountants, charitable giving professionals, insurance advisors, elder law specialists, wealth management professionals, educators and nonprofit advisors. In addition to providing the highest quality educational programming, the Institute offers unparalleled networking and professional development opportunities and the nation's largest exhibit hall dedicated to the estate planning industry.

The 53rd Institute offers practical guidance on today's most important tax and non-tax planning issues, including the planning challenges and opportunities presented by the 2017 Tax Act. It will also offer valuable insights and innovative ideas for planning effectively in what remains an uncertain and unpredictable political and economic environment. Attendees can benefit from programs covering a wide range of advanced level planning topics, or can customize their educational experience with one of our specialized program tracks to expand their expertise in today's fastest growing practice areas. Finally, our outstanding faculty includes many of your favorite Institute speakers, as well as a number of new faces providing a fresh look at key issues in individual and estate planning.
