

"Perspectives on the Rapid Growth of Non-Alcoholic and Low Alcohol Beverages," NCSLA 2024 Annual Conference

Speaking Engagement
6.17.24
Washington, D.C.

Contact

Brian A. Fink

Related Services

Food & Beverage

Brian A. Fink is slated to present at the NCSLA 2024 Annual Conference in Washington, D.C. on June 17.

Brian will participate in the panel on "Perspectives on the Rapid Growth of Non-Alcoholic and Low Alcohol Beverages," exploring the legal and regulatory challenges the alcohol industry encounters in marketing, distributing and selling low- and no-alcohol beverages. Discussion points will include:

- Trade Practices Overlap: Examining how these beverages align with traditional alcoholic trade practices.
- Distribution and Retail Channels: Assessing their roles within existing distribution and retail frameworks.
- Distribution Agreements: Outlining key considerations in distribution contracts for these products.

For more details on the conference and to join Brian for this insightful discussion, register here.