Virtual Event

With the TCJA reducing the corporate income tax rate to a flat 21%, a significant number of S corporations will likely be converting to C corporations. These same corporations, however, may find themselves down the road desiring to regain S status. This presentation will explore the potholes and obstacles that may hinder travel on this two-way road, including the built-in-gains tax, LIFO recapture, excessive passive income, unreasonable compensation, personal holding company status, excessive accumulated earnings, and re-election time restrictions.
