

"An Inside Look at the Case Behind 'Wild Wild Country' – the Takedown of the Rajneeshpuram," inFusion '18 presented by Exterro

Speaking Engagement
October 17, 2018
Portland, OR

Bob Weaver, former federal prosecutor, gives a behind-the-scenes look into the controversial Rajneeshpuram case, in which an Indian cult took over a rural Oregon town in the 1980s and ruled with an iron fist leading to arson, attempted murder, mass poisonings and the largest immigration fraud case in U.S. history. This case was recently featured in the hit Netflix docuseries, "Wild Wild Country."

For more information on this conference, visit Exterro's inFusion '18 website.

Venue:

The Nines Hotel
525 SW Morrison
Portland, OR 97204

Related Services

Litigation
White-Collar Defense & Investigations