

"What School District General Counsel Need to Know About Bonds and Levies," Council of School Attorneys 2019 Fall Conference

Speaking Engagement
November 4, 2019
SeaTac, WA

The Council of School Attorneys (COSA) supports school attorneys in their representation of public school boards by providing leadership in legal advocacy for public schools.

The 2019 Council of School Attorneys Fall Conference features information-packed presentations on timely school law issues.

Topics include: McCleary Fallout, SEBB, What General Counsel Needs to Know about Finance, Bonds, and Levies, and many more!

Location:

The Conference Center at Seattle-Tacoma International Airport
17801 International Blvd
SeaTac, WA 98158

For more conference information, click here.

Contact

Jim McNeill

Related Services

School Districts