

"Workplace Violence and Bullying," 22nd Labor & Employment Law Conference

Speaking Engagement
August 22, 2019
Seattle, WA

With the gig economy picking up momentum, the evolution of the #MeToo movement, unemployment getting even lower, and the legislature and city council getting more active, the timing couldn't be better to brush up on Labor and Employment laws and recent judicial pronouncements.

We will examine developments in labor law, leave laws, wage & hour, and immigration. We will delve into issues surrounding confidentiality, sexual harassment, workplace violence, misclassification, and discrimination. This year's program will also offer a discussion on how to prepare for an economic downturn.

Join us for a two-day seminar on the latest Labor and Employment law trends and updates, presented by some of Washington's top practitioners in the field.
