

Defeated multi-million dollar breach of contract claim to acquire competitor's business

On behalf of a client who runs a display marketing business, defeated multi-million dollar breach of contract claim to acquire competitor's business. We persuaded the trial judge that he had overlooked a critical nuance of the New York statute of frauds, resulting in reconsideration of his previous decision, and the dismissal of plaintiff's claim on summary judgment.

Contact

Andrew J. Goodman

Related Services

Litigation