

Regularly counsel and troubleshoot for closely held and family-owned entities

Regularly counsel and troubleshoot for closely held and family-owned entities (i.e., litigation prevention) in connection with their day-to-day contractual issues and business law needs by, among other things, identifying contractual trouble spots and pitfalls and drafting the necessary language to protect the company and its owners and avoid litigation.

Contact

Alan A. Heller

Related Services

Litigation