

AIA design-build agreement with architect/contractor in multi-phase hotel project

Represented the owner of a Holiday Inn Express franchise in Oregon in negotiating and preparing an AIA design-build agreement with an architect/contractor for a multi-phase project that included the replacement of siding and windows. Extensive negotiations included provisions for liquidated damages for late delivery of work and coordination of work to minimize interference with hotel operations.

Contact

Joseph W. West

Related Services

Construction

Real Estate, Land Use &
Environmental