

Represented owner of a renewable biomass energy facility in securing and maintaining indemnification

Represented owner of a renewable biomass energy facility in securing and maintaining indemnification against general contractor's arbitration claims, saving project owner more than $10 million in damages and defense costs.

Contact

Malcolm Seymour

Related Services

Environment & Natural
Resources