Bob C. Sterbank represented Sonesta International Hotels Corp. in an appeal against the approval of the NorthStar Clinic's permit. Sterbank's presentation to the Vancouver City Council outlined Sonesta's concerns, including potential impacts on homelessness and criminal activity. The appeal, which alleged errors in the approval decision, was denied on October 9. The NorthStar Clinic, an addiction treatment facility, faced delays due to the appeal but has now opened its doors.
