Foster Garvey is pleased to welcome Audrey Chambers, who has joined the firm's Litigation practice in Seattle. She focuses her practice on commercial litigation and has experience assisting clients in a broad range of disputes, including business, appellate, construction, and tort/insurance defense.

Audrey previously served as a legal extern for the Appellate Division of the Thurston County Prosecuting Attorney's Office. She later worked as a judicial extern to the Honorable Jack Nevin (retired) of Pierce County Superior Court, Department 6. Audrey also participated in the Prosecution Clerkship at the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office where she was a Rule 9 Licensed Legal Intern assigned to the Special Assault Unit.

Audrey received her J.D. from Seattle University School of Law. She obtained her B.A. from the University of Washington Tacoma.

Audrey is admitted to practice in Washington and in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington. She is a member of the Washington Defense Trial Lawyers.
