

Foster Garvey Adds New Attorneys in Washington, D.C. and Seattle; Continues Strategic Growth Throughout Nationwide Offices

Firm News

October 9, 2023

Foster Garvey Newsroom

Foster Garvey is pleased to welcome Dwayne Sam as Of Counsel and Bandhanjit Singh as Associate in the firm's Washington, D.C. and Seattle offices, respectively. The arrivals of Dwayne and Bandhanjit add to the one dozen new attorneys who have joined Foster Garvey since the start of 2023, continuing the firm's strong growth momentum across its bicoastal, full-service platform.

Dwayne Sam joins the firm's Communications, Telecom & Media practice and brings nearly a decade of experience helping clients navigate federal and state communications laws and regulations. His practice focuses on appellate review of FCC decisions and the prosecution and defense of federal district court actions. Dwayne also advises in matters involving constitutional issues, the interpretation and enforcement of federal statutes, and administrative law. Additionally, he represents clients on TCPA issues, ranging from defense in multi-million-dollar putative class actions to ongoing compliance counseling.

Previously, Dwayne served as a law clerk to Judge Janice Rogers Brown of the United States Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit and Judge George L. Russell, III, of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland.

"Dwayne not only brings a deep understanding of the ever-evolving regulatory landscape for technology and telecom businesses, but he also has a passion for finding innovative solutions for our clients," said Brad Deutsch, Managing Director of Foster Garvey's Washington D.C. office. "With the firm's deep roots in communications law, we look forward to Dwayne's

Contact

Dwayne D. Sam

Related Services

Business & Corporate Finance

Commercial & IP Transactions

Communications, Telecom &
Media

Investment Management

IP & Technology

Foster Garvey Adds New Attorneys in Washington, D.C. and Seattle; Continues Strategic Growth Throughout Nationwide Offices

contributions in helping us carry on our tradition of excellence in this arena.”

Bandhanjit Singh is a former Law Clerk with Foster Garvey and rejoins the firm as a member of the Investment Management and Business & Corporate Finance groups. Bandhanjit has experience with general commercial diligence and contract review, including previously as a broker. He also practices in complex structured financing transactions, corporate securities, mergers and acquisitions, and corporate governance.

He obtained both a J.D. and Master of Jurisprudence from the University of Washington School of Law, where he was a member of the Middle Eastern & South Asian Law Student Association. During law school, Bandhanjit served as a Planning Commissioner with the City of SeaTac in Washington. He holds an M.B.A. and bachelor’s degree in Business from Pacific Lutheran University. Bandhanjit is also a licensed real estate broker in the State of Washington.

“Bandhanjit has the type of creative thinking and problem-solving skills that Foster Garvey is known for,” said Hillary Hughes, leader of the Business & Corporate Finance group. “We are thrilled he is joining us as an associate to continue to offer his top-tier client service in his new capacity.”