Foster Garvey Newsroom

Foster Garvey PC is proud to announce that Yachts, Ships & Submersibles attorney Ed Harley and the firm have both been featured in the 2024 Chambers High Net Worth (HNW) guide as top legal advisors to the luxury yachts and superyachts sector worldwide.

This year, Ed Harley was named in Band 1 of Chambers HNW's individual attorney rankings for the Yachts & Superyachts category, with Foster Garvey also earning a spot in Band 3 of its practice rankings. Both were recognized for their longstanding industry leadership and broad-based experience helping high-net-worth individuals in a wide range of vessel-related matters, including purchase and sale, new yacht construction, ownership, financing, and operations.

"We are immensely grateful to our clients and industry leaders for this honor," said Ed Harley, chair of Foster Garvey's Yachts, Ships & Submersibles practice. "This recognition reflects the dedication and collaborative efforts of our entire team, which prides itself on helping our clients navigate the myriad legal complexities of the yacht and superyacht market. We have added significant breadth, depth and legal expertise to our Yachts, Ships & Submersibles practice, and having a deeper bench ultimately benefits our clients and their objectives whether buying, selling or constructing their yachts."

As one of the first law firms representing the superyacht industry, Foster Garvey is regarded as a pioneer in this vibrant and growing arena. Since 1993, the firm has advised pleasure craft owners, buyers and sellers in many of the most significant and high-profile transactions worldwide.
