

Foster Garvey Welcomes Alcohol Beverage Attorney Adena Santiago in Washington, D.C.

Press Release
September 19, 2022
Foster Garvey Newsroom

Foster Garvey is pleased to announce the arrival of Adena Santiago as Of Counsel in the Commercial, IP & Tech Transactions group in Washington, D.C. Her practice focuses on alcohol beverage law, where she counsels clients across the three tiers of the alcohol beverage industry. Adena holds experience in all 50 states and currently monitors a portfolio with more than one thousand licenses for a single client, among many other successful representations of hotels, restaurants, distillers, brewers, wineries and distributors. She has extensive experience with state, local and federal regulatory agencies, including the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau.

“Adena brings an exceptional combination of knowledge, experience and relationships to the table for our clients,” said Emily Gant, leader of the firm’s Commercial, IP & Tech Transactions practice. “We are pleased to welcome Adena to our firm as we work alongside our clients to ensure they are well positioned to achieve their goals.”

Adena joins Foster Garvey from international law firm McDermott Will & Emery where she was Counsel in the Washington, D.C. office. Active in industry organizations, she is a member of the National Conference of State Liquor Administrators (NCSLA) and served on its Conference Planning Committee for 2021-2022. Adena is also a member of the National Alcohol Beverage Control Association (NABCA) and the National Association of Licensing and Compliance Professionals (NALCP).

She earned her J.D. from California Western School of Law and her B.A. from Brandeis University.

Related Services

Business & Corporate
Finance
Commercial & IP
Transactions
Food & Beverage
Hospitality, Travel & Tourism