

Selling Your Station for Top Dollar

Published Article

April 24, 2017

Radio & Television Business Report (subscription required)

If you are thinking about selling your station and want to make sure that you receive top dollar, Erwin Krasnow, the co-chair of the Communications Group of D.C. law firm Garvey Schubert Barer, and Doug Ferber, a respected media financial consultant have some recommendations for you to consider before placing your property on the market.

Read the complete article on the Radio & Television Business Report website. Subscription is required