In today's world of legal specialization, I pride myself on the diversity of my practice. While I enjoy studying the fine points of the law in areas as divergent as healthcare, real estate and employment law, my work is tied together by a common thread. Making the deal is the ultimate goal. I am able to succeed in meeting that goal by finding practical solutions to differing points of view.

Mr. Mandel concentrates his practice in the areas of corporate and real estate law, with an emphasis on the purchase and sale of small and medium sized businesses. He represents clients involved in joint ventures for the acquisition, construction and financing of major residential and commercial properties in New Jersey. He also represents both landlords and tenants in the leasing of commercial properties.

Mr. Mandel's experience encompasses a broad range of corporate and commercial matters, including shareholder disputes, employment contracts and distribution agreements. He has significant experience in serving clients in the healthcare field, particularly in the purchase and sale of physician practices, physician employment contracts, physician joint ventures, health law regulatory matters, and related partnership, operating agreements and employment agreements. Mr. Mandel has also handled the purchase and sale of automobile dealerships for the past 30 years.
