My approach to this very unique area of the law is one of advocacy, sensitivity to the issues at play, and a commitment to ensuring that matters are resolved both expeditiously and cost-effectively. I take great pride and care in helping my clients overcome the obstacles that life brings to them and regain their stability.

Mr. Serviss concentrates his litigation practice on matrimonial and family law. He has extensive experience in all aspects of the practice of family law, including divorce, prenuptial agreements, business and other asset valuations, custody and visitation, child support, alimony and equitable distribution, and domestic violence matters. Mr. Serviss provides representation at trial and in mediations and arbitrations, including post-judgment enforcement and modification proceedings.

Results may vary depending on your particular facts and legal circumstances.
