

The Land Use Institute

New Jersey Law Center, New Brunswick

December 13, 2017

Event Sponsor: New Jersey State Bar Association Land Use Section and the New Jersey Chapter of the American Planning Association

Gary S. Forshner, co-Chair of the firm's Redevelopment & Land Use Department, will be a speaker at "The Land Use Institute," hosted by the NJ State Bar Association Land Use Section and the NJ Chapter of the American Planning Association. The program will take place on Wednesday, December 13, 2017 at the NJ Law Center in New Brunswick from 9:00am – 4:00pm.

Mr. Forshner and his fellow presenters will examine how the state's property tax structure impacts land use policy and planning, examine practices in other states, and explore ways to initiate tax reform that will benefit everyone in New Jersey.

Mr. Forshner concentrates his commercial real estate practice in the areas of land use, zoning, real estate development and redevelopment. He represents local, national and international developers, property owners and other business clients engaged in mixed use, residential, industrial, office, retail and affordable housing development projects.

Mr. Forshner provides sophisticated counsel and guidance across all phases of the project life cycle, including land use planning and approvals, permits and variances, appearances before municipal, county and state boards and agencies, and appeals of unfavorable land use decisions. Mr. Forshner's representation of clients encompasses a broad array of industries and includes significant expertise within the telecommunications and alternative energy (solar) industries. He has served as special land use counsel to various New Jersey municipalities and to the New Jersey Builders Association.
