

Summit on Women in the Law: Where Have We Been, Where Are We Now, Where Are We Going?

New Jersey Law Center, New Brunswick

April 25, 2018

Event Sponsor: Supreme Court Committee on Women in the Courts & New Jersey State Bar Association

Emily A. Kaller, a partner in the firm's Litigation Department, will moderate the program "Summit on Women in the Law: Where Have We Been, Where Are We Now, Where Are We Going?," which will be presented on Wednesday, April 25, 2018 from 1:00pm – 4:00pm at the New Jersey Law Center.

The program will offer a thought-provoking afternoon of panels and discussion focused on the past, present and future state of women in the law. The event is being co-sponsored by the Supreme Court Committee on Women in the Courts and the New Jersey State Bar Association.

Ms. Kaller is co-Chair of the Bar Education Subcommittee of the Supreme Court Committee on Women in the Courts. Her practice focuses on commercial litigation. She has experience in the prosecution and defense of financing, credit and other banking matters, contract disputes including those arising under licensing and asset sale agreements, environmental contamination contribution actions, and complex litigation. Her experience also encompasses class action litigation in matters involving consumer claims, alleged securities fraud and personal injury.
