

Recent Changes and Developments in White Collar Crime: A 2018 Perspective

Live Webinar

August 30, 2018

Event Sponsor: The Knowledge Group

Robert J. Flanagan III, a member of the firm's Litigation Department, will be on the faculty for the live webcast "Recent Changes and Developments in White Collar Crime: A 2018 Perspective," to be presented by The Knowledge Group on Thursday, August 30, 2018 from 12:00pm – 1:00pm (ET).

For the past years, concerned agencies have made significant developments that have shaped the facets of white collar enforcement. Furthermore, the current changes in the U.S. government have created additional ambiguity in this field. To minimize potential risks and pitfalls, companies and organizations should keep themselves abreast of the recent updates surrounding this area of law.

Mr. Flanagan and his fellow panelists will present the fundamental tools and processes necessary when dealing with white collar cases and civil enforcement actions, in light of the recent changes and developments. They will also help companies in formulating effective compliance and risk management strategies adaptable to the ever-changing regulatory landscape of white collar criminal law.

Key topics will include:

- The 2018 White Collar Crime Landscape - Recent Investigations & Enforcement Trends
- Significant White Collar Case Decisions
- Common Red Flags
- Best Practices and Practical Tips
- What Lies Ahead

Mr. Flanagan concentrates his practice in litigation, including substantial work in all aspects of both state and federal civil and criminal litigation pre-trial, trial, and appellate practice. His experience is focused in the areas of banking and creditors' rights, white collar criminal defense, landlord-tenant disputes, personal injury, community association law, and commercial litigation. Mr. Flanagan represents several clients in debt collection matters for both consumer and commercial debts, including a large number of condominium homeowner associations.
