

Fashion Fundamentals for the Professional Female

Bloomingdale's, Short Hills

November 28, 2018

Event Sponsor: Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP Women's Leadership Forum

The right attire can help you make a strong first impression in the world of business. Although the way a person dresses is no substitute for substance and experience, your clothing can impact your confidence and self-image, as well as the way you're perceived by others.

Mark your calendar and register today for a fun and relaxing evening at Bloomingdale's at The Mall at Short Hills. Our speaker will be Sharon Kornstein, a professional image consultant.

Attendees will be able to pre-order purchases in order to receive a "Family & Friends" discount of up to 25% on eligible merchandise. Please note that you will need to pay for these items at the event and pick them up after November 30, or else make arrangements to have your purchases shipped.

In addition to the usual networking and socializing, you'll enjoy an informative presentation on "dressing for success" without busting your budget.

Learn about the essential pieces you need to own in your wardrobe, and find out how you can build on those basics to create a personal, unique and flattering style.

For more information and to register, visit our event page.
