Event Sponsor: Urbach Avraham Certified Public Accounts

Michael K. Feinberg, a partner in the firm's Tax, Trusts & Estates Department, will present a seminar on "How to Preserve Assets When Faced with a Nursing Home or Other Long-Term Care Situation" on Tuesday, July 9, 2019 from 8:00am – 9:45am. The program will be presented free-of-charge to the clients of Urbach Avraham Certified Public Accounts at the company's offices in Edison, NJ.

Mr. Feinberg's presentation will cover the following topics:

- How to preserve assets
- Can we keep our house? Our IRA accounts?
- Debunking the many myths about Medicaid

Mr. Feinberg is co-Chair of the Middlesex County Bar Association's Elder Law Section. His practice focuses on estate planning, estate administration, elder law, wills and trusts, tax and business planning for individuals, corporations, partnerships and limited liability companies, and tax controversies. He serves as a strategic advisor to individuals, families, business owners, executors and trustees, counseling clients on a comprehensive range of issues within the areas of tax, trust and estate law. His work encompasses the structuring of wealth preservation strategies and the preparation of estate planning documents such as wills, living wills, powers of attorney, trust agreements and special needs trusts. He has significant experience in the niche area of elder law, guiding clients through the challenges associated with planning for nursing home or other long term care needs, guardianship issues, and the facilitation of a client's eligibility for Medicaid and related government programs and benefits.
