

Recent Developments in Professional Responsibility and Ethics

New Jersey Law Center, New Brunswick
October 10, 2019

Event Sponsor: New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education

The Hon. Glenn Berman (Ret.), Of Counsel to the firm's Litigation Department, will be a panelist for a seminar on "Recent Developments in Professional Responsibility and Ethics," to be presented at the New Jersey Law Center on Thursday, October 10, 2019 from 5:00pm – 6:30pm. The program, which was originally offered at the NJSBA Annual Meeting, is being presented by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education.

Panelists will reprise that presentation on recent developments in professional responsibility and ethics for all areas of law, discussing the application of RPC's in criminal practice, technology hazards in the era of e-courts, how to advise clients about their social media profiles, conflicts of interest and attorney disqualification and fee sharing by attorneys from different firms. The program will review the latest information from New Jersey as well as some lessons to be learned from ethics opinions and case law from neighboring states.

Judge Berman focuses his practice on mediation, arbitration, and discovery management of complex family, commercial, estate/probate, real estate and general equity matters. His practice area also encompasses special master services, settlement conferences and law enforcement investigations.

Additional details at: Recent Developments in Professional Responsibility and Ethics

Attorneys

Glenn Berman