

The Nuts and Bolts of Federal Practice: Everything You Need To Know To Handle Federal Matters With Confidence

New Jersey Law Center, New Brunswick
November 4, 2019

Event Sponsor: New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education

Jemi Goulian Lucey, Counsel in the firm's Litigation Department, will moderate and lecture at the program "The Nuts and Bolts of Federal Practice: Everything You Need to Know To Handle Federal Matters With Confidence." Greenbaum litigation partner Christopher D. Adams will be a panelist for the program, which will be presented by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education (NJICLE), in cooperation with the NJSBA Federal Practice and Procedure Section, on Monday, November 4, 2019 from 5:25pm – 9:00pm (ET) at the New Jersey Law Center.

This program will provide attendees with the necessary foundation to handle federal cases by focusing on federal court practice and procedure issues. Topics to be discussed include:

- Jurisdiction – which matters are heard in federal court as opposed to New Jersey Superior Court
- Removal to Federal Court – Considerations as to why a case should or should not be removed and the procedure for removal
- Nuts and bolts of federal pleadings – drafting tips and requirements for complaints, answers and amending complaints upon motions to dismiss
- Review of the local rules – the most important rules to remember in the NJ District Court
- Motions to Remand – issues to consider and best practices in drafting or opposing them
- Rule 16 – Pretrial conferences, scheduling and management – purposes, requirements, what the Court may consider, actions that the Court can take and why and what the judges would like you to

Attorneys

Jemi Goulian Lucey

know

- Oral arguments – the experts weigh in on do’s and don’ts

Ms. Lucey is a trial attorney who concentrates her practice on employment, higher education and professional negligence law. She represents private and public entities and institutions of higher learning in employment discrimination and retaliation actions, professional negligence matters, Title IX claims, and business disputes. She also lectures and consults on human resources law and guides employers through the practical implications of various state and federal laws affecting employers.

Mr. Adams concentrates his practice in the areas of criminal defense, internal investigations, attorney ethics matters and disciplinary proceedings, and complex commercial litigation. With a national practice that has encompassed the representation of high profile individuals, Mr. Adams has served as counsel to professional athletes, elected officials and candidates for public office, political campaigns, and numerous public and private business entities.

Additional program details and registration at: The Nuts and Bolts of Federal Practice