

Diversity & Inclusion in the Legal Profession

Live Webinar
July 29, 2020

Event Sponsor: Trial Attorneys of New Jersey

Emily A. Kaller, Stephanie G. Reckord, and Cameryn J. Hinton will present the CLE program “Diversity & Inclusion in the Legal Profession” at the 2020 Annual Meeting of Trial Attorneys of New Jersey (TANJ), to be held virtually on the Zoom platform on Wednesday, July 29, 2020 beginning at 4:00 pm.

The presentation, modeled after the American Bar Association’s training curriculum on bias-related issues in the court system, will explore the issue of implicit bias and how bias impacts diverse individuals in the legal system and in the practice of law.

Ms. Kaller is a partner in the firm’s Litigation Department and President-Elect of TANJ. Her practice focuses on commercial litigation. She has experience in the prosecution and defense of financing, credit and other banking matters, contract disputes including those arising under licensing and asset sale agreements, environmental contamination contribution actions, and complex litigation.

Ms. Reckord, also a partner in the Litigation Department, serves on the TANJ Board of Trustees. Her practice focuses on complex commercial litigation in federal and state courts, including matters in the areas of banking, employment, family law, trusts & estates, class action defense, consumer fraud, construction and commercial real estate.

Ms. Hinton, an associate in the Litigation Department, concentrates her practice in civil litigation, including commercial business disputes, liability defense, and administrative law including regulatory disputes. She is the Immediate Past President of Black Women Lawyers of New Jersey.

Additional details on the Trial Attorneys of New Jersey website.

Attorneys

Emily A. Kaller
Stephanie G. Reckord