

Legislative Action Committee Virtual Roundtable Discussion

Virtual

January 13, 2021

Event Sponsor: Community Associations Institute New Jersey Chapter

Christine F. Li, partner in the firm's Real Estate Department, will participate in a Community Associations Institute New Jersey Chapter (CAI-NJ) Legislative Action Committee (LAC-NJ) roundtable discussion of issues impacting common interest communities throughout New Jersey. The program will be held virtually on Wednesday, January 13, 2021 from 12:00pm - 1:30pm.

Ms. Li will speak on the hot topic Radburn Law, which contains requirements related to community association elections, by-law amendments, and membership voting, among other regulations.

Ms. Li, co-Chair of the firm's Community Association Practice Group, focuses her practice in real estate, with a concentration in planned real estate development law and condominium law. Her work encompasses new construction condominium and subdivided lot communities, the conversion of rental properties to the condominium form of ownership, mixed-use developments, commercial and business condominiums, workouts of distressed communities, community association law, and the registration of planned real estate developments with the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs (DCA). Ms. Li's community association representation includes general counseling, collections, and alternative dispute resolution.

Visit CAI-NJ's website for additional details on the January 13 LAC roundtable event.
