

Black Women in the Law

Live Webinar

March 26, 2021

Event Sponsor: Rutgers Law Association of Black Law Students and Women's Law Forum

Cameryn J. Hinton, an associate in the firm's Litigation Department, will be a panelist for the live webinar "Black Women in the Law," to be hosted by the Rutgers University School of Law's Association of Black Law Students (ABLS) and Women's Law Forum (WLF) on Friday March 26, 2021 beginning at 5:00pm.

This presentation, in honor of Women's History Month, will feature a panel of legal industry leaders for a discussion of what it means to be a black woman in the legal profession. The program can be accessed on the Zoom webinar platform using ID # 929 4311 4085 and the password 790134.

In addition, the ABLS and WLF have organized a sanitary product drive to donate to Babyland Family Services to assist the local community. Donations can be made through Sunday, April 4 at this Amazon wishlist link.

Ms. Hinton concentrates her practice in civil litigation, including commercial business disputes, liability defense, and administrative law including regulatory disputes. She is the Immediate Past President of the Association of Black Women Lawyers of New Jersey.
