

2022 Family Law Symposium

Live Webinar

1.28-29.22

Event Sponsor: New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education

Mark H. Sobel, Chair of the firm's Family Law Department, and Frank A. Louis, a partner in the department, will participate as speakers at the "2022 Family Law Symposium," to be presented by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education in cooperation with the New Jersey State Bar Association Family Law Section. The two-day program will be available via live webinar on Friday, January 28, 2022 from 2:00pm – 5:00pm, and on Saturday, January 29, 2022 from 9:00am – 5:00pm.

NJICLE's annual Family Law Symposium is New Jersey's leading family law conference, featuring thought-provoking presentations that examine many of today's cutting-edge matrimonial law issues.

Friday's webinar will focus on the topic of "Clearing Up Co-Habitation Confusion." Cohabitation among couples 55 and over is on the rise. There are many reasons older couples cohabit; it provides companionship without marital constraints, but it also comes without the legal protections that married couples have. For those who have had a prior marriage, cohabitation also raises issues regarding the suspension or termination of alimony. It is prudent for unmarried couples to sign a cohabitation agreement to protect their rights and assets, however this may not be enough. This program will address cohabitation agreements as well as other crucial considerations, including careful estate planning, beneficiary designations on retirement assets, the titling of property, and identifying who will make medical decisions on behalf of a sick partner.

Saturday's webinar will address the following topics:

- Top Ten Cases
- Intimate Partner Violence, Saspa and C.R. V. M.T., and Domestic Violence Updates
- Debating Arguments Attorneys Fail to Make
