Employers' Best Practices Lunch and Learn Seminar

Live Webcast March 15, 2022

Event Sponsor: Garden State Bar Association

Joel Clymer, a partner in the firm's Employment Law Department, will moderate an "Employers' Best Practices Lunch and Learn Seminar" on Tuesday, March 15, 2022 from 12:00pm – 1:30pm (ET). The program will be presented as a live webinar by the Garden State Bar Association.

Mr. Clymer will lead the panelists for this program through a discussion addressing the following topics:

- Recruiting and Hiring Diverse Talent: Informal vs. formal recruitment processes, what works and how the processes can be improved.
- Handbooks, Policies and Training: How to keep handbooks and policies up to date with the constantly changing climate surrounding social media, telecommuting and COVID-19.
- Investigations: Mistakes and challenges regarding investigations of alleged harassment, discrimination, or retaliation, and addressing the necessity to engage outside counsel.
- Communication: Common miscommunications and challenges between HR, in-house counsel, and outside counsel with proposed solutions.

Mr. Clymer is a former Director of the Garden State Bar Association and currently serves on the GSBA's Labor & Employment Law Committee. He primarily focuses his practice on employment litigation and counseling. His litigation experience encompasses the investigation, evaluation and litigation of discrimination and retaliation claims under a broad range of federal and New Jersey state employment law statutes. In the area of employment counseling, he provides guidance on a variety of employment issues in the workplace, including accommodation requests, employee benefits, leaves of absence, workplace investigations, workplace policies and procedures, employee handbooks, and severance agreements.
