

Boardwalk Seminar® 2022: Employment Law

Demand Letter to Mediation – How to Value Your Case: Defense Perspective

Harrah's Resort, Atlantic City

April 28, 2022

Event Sponsor: New Jersey Association for Justice

Jemi Goulian Lucey, a partner in the firm's Employment Law, Litigation and Healthcare Departments and Co-Chair of the Higher Education Practice Group, will be a panelist at the New Jersey Association for Justice (NJAJ) Boardwalk Seminar® 2022, which will be held at Harrah's Resort in Atlantic City on April 27-29, 2022.

Ms. Lucey will be a panelist for the employment law seminar "Demand Letter to Mediation – How to Value Your Case: Defense Perspective," which is scheduled for Thursday, April 28 from 3:00pm – 4:00pm.

Boardwalk Seminar® 2022 will feature 21 programs presented by local, regional and national speakers. The annual event is in keeping with a cornerstone of NJAJ's mission to advance the education and skills of its membership. The NJAJ is a statewide association of over 2,700 members in private practice and public service, paralegals, law clerks, law students and law school graduates not yet admitted to the bar. NJAJ is dedicated to protecting New Jersey's families by working to preserve and strengthen the laws for safer products and workplaces, a cleaner environment and quality health care.

Ms. Lucey is a trial attorney who focuses her practice on employment, higher education and professional negligence matters. She represents private and public entities, including institutions of higher learning, in employment discrimination and retaliation actions, professional negligence cases, Title IX claims, and business disputes. She also lectures and consults on employment and human resources law and provides guidance related to the practical implications of various state and federal laws affecting employers.
