

The Intersection Between Family Law and Civil Law Trial and Domestic Violence Hot Tips

Live Webinar

September 17, 2024

Event Sponsor: Hispanic National Bar Association

Tamires M. Oliveira, an associate in the firm's Family Law Department, will be a panelist for the virtual CLE presentation "The Intersection Between Family Law and Civil Law Trial and Domestic Violence Hot Tips" on Thursday, August 29, 2024, from 5:00pm – 7:00pm. The program will be hosted by the Hispanic National Bar Association (HNBA).

This presentation will feature hot tips and discussion for family and civil trial attorneys on issues including:

- Domestic violence statistics and resources
- Winning cross-examination questions
- Understanding the rules of evidence for domestic violence trials
- Evidentiary challenges before and during trial
- Universal trial techniques for aggressive lawyering
- Advantages of targeted discovery
- Loss of consortium claims subject to equitable distribution?
- Applying the witness tampering statute NJSA 2c:28-5(a) to domestic violence trials
- Difference between SASPA and VASPA – does it matter?
- To close or not to close – that is the question

Ms. Oliveira, a member of the HNBA, assists in the firm's representation of clients in the area of family law. Her work encompasses matters related to divorce and separation proceedings, child custody and support, alimony, marital settlement agreements, domestic partnerships, prenuptial and postnuptial agreements, domestic violence cases, the valuation and distribution of marital assets, and post-judgment enforcement and modification applications.

Attorneys

Tamires M. Oliveira

Seminars & Events (Cont.)

Register for this program by email.