

Redevelopment 2014: New Tools to Achieve Results

American Planning Association New Jersey Chapter

New Brunswick, NJ

January 23, 2014

Robert S. Goldsmith, chair of the firm's Redevelopment Practice Group, is scheduled to speak at the 2014 NJ Planning Conference, hosted by the American Planning Association New Jersey Chapter. The two-day Conference will take place on Thursday and Friday, January 23-24 at the Hyatt Regency in New Brunswick, NJ. Mr. Goldsmith will participate in a session on "Redevelopment 2014: New Tools to Achieve Results."

Mr. Goldsmith's practice focuses on redevelopment, transit oriented development, downtown revitalization, green building and public-private partnerships. He also has broad experience in complex commercial litigation, construction litigation and appellate work. He has represented both developers and municipalities in connection with numerous redevelopment projects throughout the state, including over 30 Special Improvement Districts. He is an adjunct professor in redevelopment law at Rutgers Law School-Newark and also teaches a redevelopment course at the Kislak Real Estate Institute at Monmouth University.

Additional program information and registration details can be found at <http://www.2014njplanningconference.com/>.
