

Handling Sex Abuse Allegations in Family Court

NJ Law Center, New Brunswick, NJ
February 16, 2015

Event Sponsor: New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education

Mark H. Sobel, co-managing partner of the firm and chair of its Family Law Department, will be a presenter at the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education seminar "Handling Sex Abuse Allegations in Family Court." The program is set for February 16, 2015 at the New Jersey Law Center in New Brunswick.

This half day program will provide attendees with a working understanding of the psychological and legal issues that are present when sex abuse is alleged in family litigation. Mr. Sobel joins a panel of distinguished judges, practitioners and mental health professionals, who will provide practical advice and helpful insights into how to handle these sensitive and complicated cases.

Mr. Sobel concentrates his practice in litigation, primarily in the area of family law and with an emphasis on the representation of high net-worth individuals. He provides counsel across all aspects of family law, including prenuptial agreements, separation and divorce proceedings, the distribution of property and other marital assets, spousal and child support, custody and relocation. Mr. Sobel represents clients at trial, in mediations and arbitrations, and at post judgment modification and enforcement hearings. He is certified by the Supreme Court of New Jersey as a Matrimonial Law Attorney.

Mr. Sobel lectures frequently on family law topics and has served as moderator of the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education's Annual Family Law Summer Institute since 2004.

For more information visit: www.njicle.com.

Attorneys

Mark H. Sobel