

Construction Defects and Liens Seminar

Stark & Stark, Lawrence Twp., NJ
June 1, 2015

Event Sponsor: New Jersey Builders Association

Carlton T. Spiller will serve as a panelist at an upcoming construction law seminar sponsored by the New Jersey Builders Association. "Construction Defects and Liens Seminar" will take place on June 1, 2015 at the offices of Stark & Stark in Lawrence Twp., NJ.

Mr. Spiller, a partner in the firm's Litigation Department, focuses his practice on commercial general liability insurance coverage and litigation involving environmental, construction defect, and professional liability claims. He has litigated claims arising under primary and excess policies, warranty based policies, professional liability policies, first party property policies, employment related practices insurance policies, and brownfields insurance policies.

Mr. Spiller has represented major developers, builders and general contractors in matters related to insurance coverage for construction defect claims. He has also represented insurance carriers, primarily in the area of environmental coverage and CERCLA claims, and including numerous complex environmental coverage matters involving claims in excess of $100 million.

Mr. Spiller's litigation experience includes the representation of small and mid-sized companies in complex commercial litigation related to minority shareholder disputes, contract claims, employment matters, and banking litigation.

For additional information or to register, visit www.njba.org.

Attorneys

Carlton T. Spiller