

Living History: A Conversation with Carlotta Watts LaNier of the “Little Rock Nine”, Paulette Brown and More

New Jersey Law Center, New Brunswick, NJ

June 22, 2015

Event Sponsor: New Jersey State Bar Association Diversity Committee

Raymond M. Brown, a partner in the firm’s Litigation Department, will be a panelist at the upcoming seminar “Living History: A Conversation with Carlotta Walls LaNier of the ‘Little Rock Nine’, Paulette Brown and More.” This event, part of the Diverse Voices Conference Series, is presented by the New Jersey State Bar Association Diversity Committee in cooperation with the New Jersey Women Lawyers Association, the New Jersey Muslim Lawyers Association, the Hispanic Bar Association of New Jersey and the Garden State Bar Association.

Ms. LaNier will share her unique insights and provide answers to questions about being a part of living history, her experiences in 1960’s Arkansas, and how the lessons she learned then can continue to shape the laws of today. Joining Mr. Brown on the panel will be American Bar Association President-Elect Paulette Brown, a partner at Locke Lord, LLP; Kim C. Belin of Cooper Levenson; Lawrence S. Lustbert of Gibbons, PC; and Thomas Hoff Prol of Laddey, Clark & Ryan, LLC.

Mr. Brown concentrates his practice in white collar criminal defense, international human rights issues, internal investigations and complex commercial litigation. He has defended clients in state and federal courts and before administrative tribunals. He is a leading figure in the developing area of law related to the regulation and enforcement of business requirements for human rights compliance.
