

Tools of the Trade: The Top Procedural Devices for Trial Lawyers - Strategies that Get Results

New Jersey Law Center, New Brunswick, NJ

August 27, 2015

Event Sponsor: New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education

For the second consecutive year, Litigation Department partners John D. North and Eric Tunis will present a seminar on "Tools of the Trade: The Top Procedural Devices for Trial Lawyers - Strategies that Get Results," hosted by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education. The Hon. Glenn Berman (Ret.), Of Counsel in the firm's Litigation Department, will also be a speaker at this year's program, scheduled for August 27, 2015 from 9:00am – 1:00pm at the New Jersey Law Center in New Brunswick, NJ.

The presentation will focus on tips and strategies for leveraging the power of the rules of evidence, to include the use of:

- Motions in limine
- NJRE 104 hearings
- Limiting instructions and curative instructions to blunt the effect of damaging evidence
- Objections and sidebars to control the difficult witness
- Suppression motions and hearings
- Other limited purpose evidence

Mr. North focuses his practice in litigation, with an emphasis on trial practice. He has tried over 75 jury cases to verdict. His practice encompasses the defense of catastrophic injury and other high exposure cases, commercial and banking litigation, construction litigation, professional liability, and a personal injury practice limited to the representation of plaintiffs in cases involving significant injuries and complex liability issues. Mr. North is the author of the NJICLE treatise "A Trial Lawyer's Strategic Guide to the New Jersey Rules of Evidence," which will be available for purchase at the seminar.
