

2016 Senior Lawyers Conference

New Jersey Law Center, New Brunswick, NJ

April 11, 2016

Event Sponsor: NJICLE

Ellen H. Marshall, Of Counsel in the firm's Family Law Department, will be a panelist at the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education's 2016 Senior Lawyers Conference. The Conference will be held on April 11, 2016 at the New Jersey Law Center in New Brunswick from 9:00am – 4:30pm.

Attendees will learn key strategies for dealing with issues faced when planning for retirement. Topics to be covered include:

- Estate planning
- When to leave a firm
- Preparing for retirement
- How to value and sell your practice
- Developing a mediation practice
- How to become more technologically savvy
- Psychological implications of retirement
- Employment concerns
- Knowing when to retire

Ms. Marshall focuses her family law practice on complex custody and economic issues. She appears in both trial and appellate courts. Ms. Marshall has been appointed guardian ad litem by courts in various forms of custody causes of action. She interfaces and works cooperatively with attorneys in the areas of estate planning, trust formation and administration, and criminal defense.

For more information and to register, click here.