

Civil Reservation of Rights: Application of Maida v. Kuskin in Personal Injury Actions – A Webinar

Online Webinar
August 30, 2016

Event Sponsor: New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education

Emily A. Kaller, a partner in the firm's Litigation Department, will be a panelist for "Civil Reservation of Rights: Application of Maida v. Kuskin in Personal Injury Actions – A Webinar," hosted by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education. The program will be held on August 30, 2016 from 12:00pm – 1:40pm.

During the webinar, the panelists will discuss what civil reservation of rights is, the importance of correctly entering the reservation of rights, and its impact on a later personal injury action.

Ms. Kaller's practice focuses on commercial litigation. She has experience in the prosecution and defense of financing, credit and other banking matters, contract disputes including those arising under licensing and asset sale agreements, environmental contamination contribution actions, and complex litigation. Her experience also encompasses class action litigation in matters involving consumer claims, alleged securities fraud and personal injury. Ms. Kaller has represented clients in both state and federal courts, including appellate practice before the New Jersey Supreme Court, Appellate Division and the Third Circuit Court of Appeals. Her work in chancery practice includes estate litigation, claims for injunctive relief in business disputes, shareholder disputes and restrictive covenants.
