

Civil Trial Advocacy Summer Institute

New Jersey Law Center, New Brunswick

July 8, 2014 - July 9, 2014

Event Sponsor: New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education in cooperation with the American College of Trial Lawyers

John D. North, a partner in the firm's Litigation Department, will participate at the "Civil Trial Advocacy Summer Institute" sponsored by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education in cooperation with the American College of Trial Lawyers. The presentation will be held at the Law Center in New Brunswick on July 8 and 9.

The intensive 2-day program is designed for trial attorneys and general practitioners who are serious about committing themselves to sharpening their civil trial techniques.

Mr. North focuses his practice in commercial litigation, construction litigation and in professional liability and negligence matters. He has tried numerous jury and non-jury cases in state and federal courts. He has tried over 75 jury cases to verdict, including significant cases in the fields of banking, insurance, legal malpractice, medical malpractice, products liability, and construction. While he primarily handles defensive litigation, Mr. North also maintains a personal injury practice limited to significant injuries and complex liability issues.
