Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP is pleased to welcome three second-year law school students to its 2018 Summer Associate Program.

Brooke Emery is attending Seton Hall University School of Law after earning her Bachelor of Arts degree from Rowan University. Her law school activities include membership in the Seton Hall Legislative Journal, serving as Chairperson of the Community Outreach Committee, as President of the Women's Law Forum, and as a Senator in the Student Bar Association. Ms. Emery most recently served as an intern in the New Jersey Office of the Attorney General.

Marjan Moussavian is attending Seton Hall University School of Law after earning her Bachelor of Arts degree cum laude from John Jay College of Criminal Justice. A Dorothy Day Scholar and Leadership Fellow, her law school activities include serving as Comments Editor of the Seton Hall Legislative Journal, as a Senator in the Student Bar Association, and as a mentor in the Student Mentorship Program. Ms. Moussavian most recently served as a legal intern at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Robert Nuse is attending Seton Hall University School of Law after earning his Bachelor of Arts degree summa cum laude from Monmouth University, where he earned a 4.00 GPA and was honored as the Valedictorian of his class. His law school activities include serving as an Articles Editor and Associate Editor of the Seton Hall Law Review. Mr. Nuse most recently served as an extern in the Civil Rights Unit, Civil Division of the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey.

Participants in the Summer Associate Program have the opportunity to gain tangible legal experience in transactional and litigation matters in various departments and practice areas while working with partners and associates at the firm. Summer associates receive direct exposure to the legal process by attending closings, hearings/trials, depositions, negotiations and business meetings that take place throughout the summer. Seminars, luncheons and outings offer informal settings to further develop professional and personal ties to the firm and its attorneys. Litigation partner Justin P. Kolbenschlag serves as the supervising partner for the Summer Associate Program.
