

Emily A. Kaller Installed as President-Elect of Trial Attorneys of New Jersey

October 30, 2019

Emily A. Kaller, a partner in the firm's Litigation Department, was installed as President-Elect of Trial Attorneys of New Jersey (TANJ) at the organization's annual Trial Bar Awards Reception, which was held on October 17, 2019 at the Pleasantdale Chateau in West Orange. Ms. Kaller previously served as First Vice President of TANJ, and is Chair of the TANJ Public Positions/Legislative Committee.

TANJ is an organization of approximately 600 members consisting of both plaintiff & defense attorneys from the civil and criminal bars and is dedicated to promoting the interests of the public at large, the interest of the litigants involved in civil and criminal cases, and the interests of the bench and bar. The group is also committed to training young attorneys through internship and scholarship programs, as well as training seasoned attorneys through continuing legal education programs.

Ms. Kaller's practice focuses on commercial litigation. She has experience in the prosecution and defense of financing, credit and other banking matters, contract disputes including those arising under licensing and asset sale agreements, environmental contamination contribution actions, and complex litigation. Ms. Kaller has represented clients in both state and federal courts, including appellate practice before the New Jersey Supreme Court, Appellate Division and the Third Circuit Court of Appeals, and has conducted and assisted with internal investigations on behalf of public and private entities in connection with a variety of matters.
