

Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis Co-Sponsors Roundtable Discussion Addressing Violence Against Asian American and Pacific Islander Communities

March 26, 2021

Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP is proud to be a co-sponsor of the virtual event “Anti-AAPI Violence: Federal, State, and Local Leaders Call to Action,” to be presented by the Asian Pacific American Lawyers Association of New Jersey (APALA-NJ) on Tuesday, March 30, 2021 from 2:30pm – 3:00pm on the Zoom platform.

The program will feature U.S. Senator Cory Booker, U.S. Representative Andy Kim (3rd District of New Jersey), New Jersey Attorney General Gurbir S. Grewal, and Parimal Garg from the office of New Jersey Governor Phil Murphy in a roundtable discussion focused on the surge of violence against the Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) community and policies addressing same. The program will be moderated by attorney Jenny Chung, President of APALA-NJ.

Greenbaum Litigation associate Irene Hsieh serves on the Board of Directors of APALA-NJ. Real Estate partner Christine F. Li and Litigation associate Abdus-Sami M. Jameel are members of the group, whose core mission is focused on ensuring greater representation of Asian Pacific American attorneys in various sectors of the legal profession as well as in government and the judiciary.

There is no cost to attend this program. Those interested in attending need to register.
