

Monica P. Schroeck Joins Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis as Counsel

May 23, 2022

Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP is pleased to announce that Monica P. Schroeck has joined the firm as Counsel in the Environmental Department.

Ms. Schroeck concentrates her practice in environmental law, advising both public and private entities on issues associated with real estate and corporate transactions and in environmental litigation. She has extensive experience encompassing a broad range of environmental and land use issues, including those associated with site remediation, environmental due diligence, solid waste disposal, clean air and water regulations, insurance coverage, and environmental health and safety (EHS) compliance. She counsels clients on matters related to federal and state environmental statutes, including the New Jersey Spill Compensation and Control Act (Spill Act), the Industrial Site Recovery Act (ISRA), the Site Remediation Reform Act (SRRA), the Toxic Substance Control Act (TSCA), the Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1985 (Proposition 65), the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA), the Coastal Area Facility Review Act (CAFRA), and Environmental Justice (EJ) compliance. In the area of Superfund litigation, Ms. Schroeck has handled multi-party matters in various federal jurisdictions, including New Jersey's Passaic River litigation. She has represented clients in administrative actions before state and federal agencies, including the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). Her experience also includes responding to audit requests for environmental disclosures and providing counsel on environmental and permitting issues related to the cannabis industry.

Ms. Schroeck joins the Greenbaum environmental team after practicing at a number of prominent New Jersey firms. Prior to earning her law degree, she utilized her engineering background as a project manager in the power generation industry and has considerable knowledge of matters associated with natural gas generation and power metering.

Ms. Schroeck earned her J.D. from Seton Hall University School of Law and her M.B.A. from Seton Hall University Stillman School of Business. She received her B.S. from Swarthmore College. She is a Director and Treasurer of the New Jersey State Bar Association's Environmental Law Section. She is admitted to practice in New Jersey and New York, and in the U.S. District Court, District of New Jersey and the U.S. Court of Appeals, Third Circuit.

To learn more about the legal services our firm provides to clients please visit us online.